COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT & THE NORTH CAROLINA WAGE AND HOUR ACT

Plaintiff Michael Allen (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated delivery drivers, brings this Complaint against Defendants C & A Pizza, Inc. d/b/a Domino’s Pizza and John E. Ridge (collectively “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

1. Defendants operate numerous Domino’s Pizza franchise stores in and around this District. Defendants employ delivery drivers who use their own automobiles to deliver pizzas and other food items to their customers. However, instead of reimbursing delivery drivers for the reasonably approximate costs of the business use of their vehicles, Defendants use a flawed method to determine reimbursement rates that provides such an unreasonably low rate beneath any reasonable approximation of the expenses they incur that the drivers’ unreimbursed expenses cause their wages to fall below the federal and state minimum wage during some or all workweeks.

2. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit as a collective action under the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq., and class action under the North Carolina Wage and Hour Act (“NCWHA”), N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 95-25.1, et seq., to recover unpaid minimum wages owed to himself and similarly situated delivery drivers employed by Defendants at their Domino's Pizza stores.

Jurisdiction and Venue

3. The FLSA authorizes court actions by private parties to recover damages for violation of its wage and hour provisions. Jurisdiction over Plaintiff's FLSA claim is based on 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question).

4. Venue in this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Plaintiff resides in this District, Defendants employed Plaintiff in this District, Defendants operate Domino's Pizza franchise stores in this District, and a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim herein occurred in this District.

Parties

5. Defendant C & A Pizza, Inc. d/b/a Domino's Pizza is authorized to conduct business and is conducting business in North Carolina. C & A Pizza, Inc. may be served via its registered agent, John E. Ridge, at 2002 Anita Drive, Laurinburg, NC 28352, or wherever he may be found.

6. Defendant John E. Ridge is individually liable because, during the relevant times, he was an owner of substantial interests in Defendant C & A Pizza, Inc. d/b/a Domino's Pizza, served as an officer of the entity, and held managerial responsibilities and substantial control over terms and conditions of drivers' work as he held the power to hire and fire, supervised and controlled work schedules and/or conditions of employment, determined rates and methods of pay and/or expense reimbursements, and maintained employment records and/or held control over employment records. Defendant Ridge may be served at 2002 Anita Drive, Laurinburg, NC 28352, or wherever he may be found.

7. Plaintiff has been employed by Defendants since approximately March 2019 as a delivery driver at of Defendants' Domino's Pizza stores located at 288 Bailey Road Lumberton, NC 28358 and 2739 W 5th St. Lumberton, NC 28358, which is located within this District. Plaintiff's consent to pursue this claim under the FLSA is attached to this Original Complaint as "Exhibit 1."

General Allegations

Defendants' Business

8. Defendants own and operate numerous Domino's Pizza franchise stores, including stores within this District and this Division.

9. John E. Ridge is an owner, officer, and director of corporate Defendant C & A Pizza Inc. In this capacity, Mr. Ridge put the pay scheme at issue in place, has overseen and enforced Defendants' pay practices, and is, therefore, individually liable for the violations at issue.

10. Defendants' Domino's Pizza stores employ delivery drivers who all have the same primary job duty: to deliver pizzas and other food items to customers' homes or workplaces.

Defendants' Flawed Automobile Reimbursement Policy

11. Defendants require their delivery drivers to maintain and pay for safe, legally-operable, and insured automobiles when delivering pizza and other food items.

12. Defendants' delivery drivers incur costs for gasoline, vehicle parts and fluids, repair and maintenance services, insurance, depreciation, and other expenses ("automobile expenses") while delivering pizzas and other food items for the primary benefit of Defendants.

13. Defendants' delivery driver reimbursement policy reimburses drivers on a per-mile basis, but the per-mile reimbursement equates to below the IRS business mileage reimbursement rate or any other reasonable approximation of the cost to own and operate a motor vehicle. This policy applies to all of Defendants' delivery drivers.

14. The result of Defendants' delivery driver reimbursement policy is a reimbursement of much less than a reasonable approximation of its drivers' automobile expenses.

15. During the applicable FLSA limitations period, the IRS business mileage reimbursement rate ranged between $.545 and $.585 per mile. Likewise, reputable companies that study the cost of owning and operating a motor vehicle and/or reasonable reimbursement rates, including AAA, have determined that the average cost of owning and operating a vehicle ranged between $.571 and $.608 per mile during the same period for drivers who drive 15,000 miles per year. These figures represent a reasonable approximation of the average cost of owning and operating a vehicle for use in delivering pizzas.

16. However, the driving conditions associated with the pizza delivery business cause even more frequent and higher maintenance costs and more rapid depreciation from driving as much as, and in the manner of, a delivery driver. Defendants' delivery drivers experience lower gas mileage and higher repair costs than the average driver used in the above calculations. The nature of the delivery business includes frequent stopping and starting of the engine, frequent braking, short routes as opposed to highway driving, and driving under time pressures.

17. Defendants' reimbursement policy does not reimburse delivery drivers for even their ongoing out-of-pocket expenses, much less other costs they incur to own and operate their vehicle, and thus Defendants uniformly fail to reimburse their delivery drivers at any reasonable approximation of the cost of owning and operating their vehicles for Defendants' benefit.

18. Defendants' systematic failure to adequately reimburse automobile expenses constitutes a "kickback" to Defendants such that the hourly wages it pays to Plaintiff and Defendants' other delivery drivers are not paid free and clear of all outstanding obligations to Defendants.

19. Defendants fail to reasonably approximate the amount of its drivers' automobile expenses to such an extent that their drivers' net wages are diminished beneath the state and federal minimum wage requirements.

20. In sum, Defendants' reimbursement policy fails to reflect the realities of delivery drivers' automobile expenses.

Defendants' Failure to Reasonably Reimburse Automobile Expenses Causes Minimum Wage Violations

21. Regardless of the precise amount of the per-mile reimbursement at any given point in time, Defendants' reimbursement formula has resulted in an unreasonable underestimation of delivery drivers' automobile expenses throughout the recovery period, causing systematic violations of the state and federal minimum wage.

22. Plaintiff was paid $4.75 per hour during his employment with Defendants, including a tip credit applicable to the time he performed deliveries.

23. The federal minimum wage has been $7.25 per hour since July 24, 2009.

24. During the time Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a delivery driver, he was reimbursed on a per mile basis of no more than $.29 per mile.

25. Plaintiff's average round trip delivery distance was approximately 8 miles.

26. During Plaintiff's employment, the IRS business mileage reimbursement rate ranged between $.545 and $.585 per mile, which reasonably approximated the automobile expenses incurred delivering pizzas. <http://www.irs.gov/Tax-Professionals/Standard-Mileage-Rates>. Using the lowest IRS rate in effect during that period as a reasonable approximation of Plaintiff's automobile expenses, every mile driven on the job decreased his net wages by at least $.255 ($.545 - $.29) per mile.

27. During his employment by Defendants, Plaintiff averaged 3 or more deliveries per hour,

28. Thus, using even a conservative underestimate of Plaintiff's actual expenses and damages, every hour on the job decreased Plaintiff's net wages by at least $6.12 ($.255 x 3 deliveries/mile x 8 miles/delivery = $6.12), resulting in a net hourly wage well below minimum wage.

29. All of Defendants' delivery drivers had similar experiences to those of Plaintiff. They were subject to the same reimbursement policy; received similar reimbursements; incurred similar automobile expenses; completed deliveries of similar distances and at similar frequencies; and were paid at or near the federal minimum wage before deducting unreimbursed business expenses.

30. Because Defendants paid their drivers a gross hourly wage at precisely the federal minimum wage, and because the delivery drivers incurred unreimbursed automobile expenses, the delivery drivers "kicked back" to Defendants an amount sufficient to cause minimum wage violations.

31. While the amount of Defendants' actual reimbursements per delivery may vary over time, Defendants are relying on the same flawed policy and methodology with respect to all delivery drivers at all of its other Domino's Pizza stores. Thus, although reimbursement amounts may differ somewhat by time or region, the amounts of under-reimbursements relative to automobile costs incurred are relatively consistent between time and region.

32. Defendants' low reimbursement rates were a frequent complaint of at least some of Defendants' delivery drivers, yet Defendants continued to reimburse at a rate much less than any reasonable approximation of delivery drivers' automobile expenses.

33. The net effect of Defendants' flawed reimbursement policy was willful failure to pay the state and federal minimum wage to delivery drivers. Defendants thereby enjoy ill-gained profits at the expense of their employees.

Collective and Class Action Allegations

34. Plaintiff brings this FLSA claim as an “opt-in” collective action on behalf of similarly situated delivery drivers pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

35. The FLSA claims may be pursued by those who opt-in to this case pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

36. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of other similarly situated employees, seeks relief on a collective basis challenging Defendants’ practice of failing to pay employees federal minimum wage. The number and identity of other plaintiffs yet to opt-in may be ascertained from Defendants’ records, and potential class members may be notified of the pendency of this action via mail and electronic means.

37. Plaintiff and all of Defendants’ delivery drivers are similarly situated in that:

- a. They have worked as delivery drivers for Defendants delivering pizzas and other food items to Defendants’ customers;
- b. They have delivered pizzas and other food items using automobiles not owned or maintained by Defendants;
- c. Defendants required them to maintain these automobiles in a safe, legally-operable, and insured condition;
- d. They incurred costs for automobile expenses while delivering pizzas and other food items for the primary benefit of Defendants;
- e. They were subject to similar driving conditions, automobile expenses, delivery distances, and delivery frequencies;
- f. They were subject to the same pay policies and practices of Defendants;

- g. They were subject to the same delivery driver reimbursement policy that underestimates automobile expenses per mile, and thereby were systematically deprived of reasonably approximate reimbursements, resulting in wages below the federal minimum wage in some or all workweeks;
- h. They were reimbursed similar set amounts of automobile expenses per delivery; and
- i. They were paid at or near the federal minimum wage before deducting unreimbursed business expenses.

38. Plaintiff brings Count II as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, on behalf of himself and as the Class Representative of the following persons (the “Class”):

All current and former delivery drivers employed by Defendant since the date three years preceding the filing of this Complaint.

39. The state law claims, if certified for class-wide treatment, are brought on behalf of all similarly situated persons who do not opt-out of the Class.

40. The Class satisfies the numerosity standard as it consists of hundreds of persons who are geographically dispersed and, therefore, joinder of all Class members in a single action is impracticable.

41. Questions of fact and law common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. The questions of law and fact common to the Class arising from Defendants’ actions include, without limitation:

- a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class members the minimum wage required by North Carolina law;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to reasonably reimburse Class members for using their own vehicles to deliver Defendants’ pizzas and other food items;

- c. Whether Defendants' formula and / or methodology used to calculate the payment of reimbursement for vehicle expenses resulted in unreasonable under-reimbursement of the Class members;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to keep accurate records of deductions from Class members' wages in violation of North Carolina law; and
- e. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs for "other amounts promised" pursuant to its company handbook, and thus required by the NCWHA.

42. The questions set forth above predominate over any questions affecting only individual persons, and a class action is superior with respect to considerations of consistency, economy, efficiency, fairness, and equity to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the state law claims.

43. Plaintiff's claim is typical of those of the Class in that:

- a. Plaintiff and the Class have worked as delivery drivers for Defendants delivering pizzas and other food items to Defendants' customers;
- b. Plaintiff and the Class delivered pizzas and other food items using automobiles not owned or maintained by Defendants;
- c. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Class to maintain these automobiles in a safe, legally-operable, and insured condition;
- d. Plaintiff and the Class incurred costs for automobile expenses while delivering pizzas and other food items for the primary benefit of Defendants;
- e. Plaintiff and the Class were subject to similar driving conditions, automobile expenses, delivery distances, and delivery frequencies;
- f. Plaintiff and the Class were subject to the same pay policies and practices of Defendants;

- g. Plaintiff and the Class were subject to the same delivery driver reimbursement policy that underestimates automobile expenses per mile, and thereby were systematically deprived of reasonably approximate reimbursements, resulting in wages below the state and federal minimum wage in some or all workweeks;
- h. Plaintiff and the Class were reimbursed similar set amounts of automobile expenses per delivery; and
- i. Plaintiff and the Class were paid at or near the North Carolina minimum wage before deducting unreimbursed business expenses.

44. A class action is the appropriate method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class.

45. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class because he is a member of the Class and his interests do not conflict with the interests of the members of the Class he seeks to represent. The interests of the members of the Class will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiff and the undersigned counsel, who have extensive experience prosecuting complex wage and hour, employment, and class action litigation.

46. Maintenance of this action as a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy as members of the Class have little interest in individually controlling the prosecution of separate class actions, no other litigation is pending over the same controversy, it is desirable to concentrate the litigation in this Court due to the relatively small recoveries per member of the Class, and there are no material difficulties impairing the management of a class action.

47. It would be impracticable and undesirable for each member of the Class who suffered harm to bring a separate action. In addition, the maintenance of separate actions would place a substantial and unnecessary burden on the courts and could result in inconsistent adjudications, while a single class action can determine, with judicial economy, the rights of all Class members.

Count I: Violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938

48. Plaintiff reasserts and re-alleges the allegations set forth above.
49. The FLSA regulates, among other things, the payment of minimum wage by employers whose employees are engaged in interstate commerce, or engaged in the production of goods for commerce, or employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce. 29 U.S.C. §206(a).
50. The corporate Defendant is subject to the FLSA's minimum wage requirements as an enterprise engaged in interstate commerce, and its employees are engaged in commerce.
51. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and all other similarly situated delivery drivers have been entitled to the rights, protections, and benefits provided under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq.
52. Section 13 of the FLSA, codified at 29 U.S.C. § 213, exempts certain categories of employees from federal minimum wage obligations. None of the FLSA exemptions apply to Plaintiff or other similarly situated delivery drivers.
53. Under Section 6 of the FLSA, codified at 29 U.S.C. § 206, employees have been entitled to be compensated at a rate of at least $7.25 per hour since July 24, 2009.
54. As alleged herein, Defendants have reimbursed delivery drivers less than the reasonably approximate amount of its automobile expenses to such an extent that it diminishes these employees' wages beneath the federal minimum wage.
55. Defendants knew or should have known that their pay and reimbursement policies result in failure to compensate delivery drivers at the federal minimum wage.

56. Defendants, pursuant to their policy and practice, violated the FLSA by refusing and failing to pay federal minimum wage to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

57. Plaintiff and all similarly situated delivery drivers are victims of a uniform and employer-based compensation and reimbursement policy. This uniform policy, in violation of the FLSA, has been applied, and continues to be applied, to all delivery driver employees in Defendants' stores.

58. Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees are entitled to damages equal to the minimum wage minus actual wages received after deducting reasonably approximated automobile expenses within three years from the date each Plaintiff joins this case, plus periods of equitable tolling, because Defendants acted willfully and knew, or showed reckless disregard for, whether their conduct was unlawful.

59. Defendants have acted neither in good faith nor with reasonable grounds to believe that their actions and omissions were not a violation of the FLSA, and as a result, Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees are entitled to recover an award of liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount of unpaid minimum wages under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). Alternatively, should the Court find Defendants are not liable for liquidated damages, Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees are entitled to an award of prejudgment interest at the applicable legal rate.

60. As a result of the aforesaid willful violations of the FLSA's minimum wage provisions, minimum wage compensation has been unlawfully withheld by Defendants from Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees. Accordingly, Defendants are liable under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), together with an additional amount of liquidated damages, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of this action.

Count II: Violation of the North Carolina Wage and Hour Act

61. Plaintiff reasserts and re-alleges the allegations set forth above.
62. Pursuant to the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 95-25.6, Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs all wages, when due, for all hours of work at hourly rates which exceeded the minimum wage rate under the FLSA on their regular pay date.
63. Defendants were required to provide employees with advanced notice for wage deductions permissible by and in compliance with the NCWHA.
64. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs reimbursements for travel expenses “as other amounts promised” under the NCWHA and thus failed to comply with this statute and its accompanying administrative code.
65. The foregoing conduct, as alleged, constitutes willful violations of the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. State. §§ 95-25.6, 95-25.7, 95-25.8, and 95-25.13.
66. As set forth above, the Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs have sustained losses and lost compensation as a proximate result of Defendants’ violations. Accordingly, Plaintiff on behalf of himself and the Putative Plaintiffs, seeks damages in the amount of their unpaid earned compensation, liquidated damages, plus interest at the legal rate set forth in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 24-1 from the date each amount came due as provided by the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 95-25.22(a) and (al).
67. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Putative Plaintiffs, seeks recovery of his attorneys’ fees as provided by the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 95-25.22(d).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs and the Putative Plaintiffs collectively pray that this Honorable Court:

1. Issue an Order certifying this action as a collective action under the FLSA and designate the above Plaintiff as representative of all those similarly situated under the FLSA collective action;
2. Issue an Order certifying this action as a class action under the NCWHA and designate the Plaintiff as representative on behalf of all those similarly situated of the NCWHA classes;
3. Award Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs actual damages for unpaid wages and liquidated damages equal in amount to the unpaid compensation found due to Plaintiff and the class as provided by the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 95-25.22(al) and pursuant to the FLSA, U.S.C. § 216(b);
4. Award Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs pre- and post-judgment interest at the statutory rate as provided by the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 95-25.22(a) and pursuant to the FLSA, U.S.C. § 216(b);
5. Award Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements as provided by the NCWHA, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 95-25.22(d) and pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b); and
6. Award Plaintiff and the Putative Plaintiffs further legal and equitable relief as this Court deems necessary, just, and proper.

Demand for Jury Trial

Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury of all issues triable by jury.
